Former Pioneer Baseball Player Drafted

Former Pioneer Chris Franklin was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 12th round (#364) of the 2010 Major League Baseball First Year Player Entry Draft.

Former Pioneer Chris Franklin with Southeastern Louisiana

After two successful years for the Pioneers, Franklin attended Southeastern Louisiana University. Franklin spent time at 3B and pitcher for both the Pioneers and Lions, but was drafted as a pitcher by the Padres. Franklin was a NCAA Division I All-American as a relief pitcher at Southeastern Louisiana. The Pioneer baseball program would like to extend its best wishes to Franklin who not only is great baseball player, but also a wonderful person.
