

Daniel Wallace

Red Mt. Reading Series

FEBRUARY 7
Tuesday

Workshop 3PM

Shelby Campus Room
213GSB

Reading 7PM

Shelby Campus HSB
Multipurpose Room

Free & Open to All

More Info: Contact

lovinguth@jeffstateonline.com

J. Ross MacDonald Distinguished Professor of English at UNC Chapel Hill

Daniel Wallace, winner of numerous awards for writing, is author of four novels, including Big Fish (1998), Ray in Reverse (2000), The Watermelon King (2003) and most recently Mr. Sebastian and the Negro Magician (2007). He has written one book for children, Elynora, and in 2008 it was published in Italy, with illustrations by Daniela Tordi.

Sponsored by Jefferson State CC & a grant from the Alabama Humanities Foundation, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities & SKD English Honor Society

JSCC 4600 Valleydale Rd. Bham, AL 35242

More Info: Contact Sharon Lovinguth at 205-807-7627 or lovinguth@jeffstateonline.com